ECF Case

Plaintiff Segundo Gonzalez Basurto (“Plaintiff Gonzalez” or “Mr. Gonzalez”), individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon his knowledge and belief, and as against 3 East 48th Rest. Inc. (d/b/a PJ Moran's), (“Defendant Corporation”), Eamon Maher, John Mahon, Vincent Doe, and Marcelo Moreno, (“Individual Defendants”), (collectively, “Defendants”), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Gonzalez is a former employee of Defendants 3 East 48th Rest. Inc. (d/b/a PJ Moran's), Eamon Maher, John Mahon, Vincent Doe, and Marcelo Moreno.
2. Defendants own, operate, or control an Irish Restaurant, located at 3 East 48th Street, New York, New York 10017 under the name “PJ Moran's”.

3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendants Eamon Maher, John Mahon, Vincent Doe, and Marcelo Moreno, serve or served as owners, managers, principals, or agents of Defendant Corporation and, through this corporate entity, operate or operated the restaurant as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiff Gonzalez was employed as a dishwasher at the restaurant located at 3 East 48th Street, New York, New York 10017.

5. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff Gonzalez worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage and overtime compensation for the hours that he worked.

6. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of the hours worked and failed to pay Plaintiff Gonzalez appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

7. Defendants' conduct extended beyond Plaintiff Gonzalez to all other similarly situated employees.

8. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Gonzalez and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

9. Plaintiff Gonzalez now brings this action on behalf of himself, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the "NYLL"), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees and costs.

10. Plaintiff Gonzalez seeks certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of himself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff Gonzalez's state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

12. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate an Irish Restaurant located in this district. Further, Plaintiff Gonzalez was employed by Defendants in this district.

32. Plaintiff Gonzalez is a former employee of Defendants who was employed as a dishwasher.

33. Plaintiff Gonzalez seeks to represent a class of similarly situated individuals under 29 U.S.C. 216(b).

Plaintiff Segundo Gonzalez Basurto

35. Defendants employed Plaintiff Gonzalez as a dishwasher.

36. Plaintiff Gonzalez regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as food and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

45. Defendants did not pay Plaintiff Gonzalez any wages for his last week of work.

46. Plaintiff Gonzalez's pay did not vary even when he was required to stay later or work a longer day than his usual schedule.

47. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff Gonzalez to work an additional 30 minutes past his scheduled departure time every day, and did not pay him for the additional time he worked.

48. Defendants never granted Plaintiff Gonzalez any breaks or meal periods of any kind.

49. Plaintiff Gonzalez was not required to keep track of his time, nor to his knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device such as punch cards, that accurately reflected his actual hours worked.

50. On two occasions, Defendants required Plaintiff Gonzalez to sign a document, the contents of which he was not allowed to review in detail.

51. No notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Gonzalez regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

55. Defendants required Plaintiff Gonzalez to purchase "tools of the trade" with his own funds—including one pair of non-slip shoes.

Defendants' General Employment Practices

56. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Gonzalez (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying him appropriate minimum wage and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

57. Plaintiff Gonzalez was a victim of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he worked.

58. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff Gonzalez not receiving payment for all his hours worked, and resulted in Plaintiff Gonzalez's effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

59. Defendants habitually required Plaintiff Gonzalez to work additional hours beyond his regular shifts but did not provide him with any additional compensation.

60. Defendants' time keeping system did not reflect the actual hours that Plaintiff Gonzalez worked.

61. Defendants willfully disregarded and purposefully evaded recordkeeping requirements of the FLSA and NYLL by failing to maintain accurate and complete timesheets and payroll records.

62. On two occasions, Defendants required Plaintiff Gonzalez to sign a document the contents of which he was not allowed to review in detail. Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

63. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff Gonzalez (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff Gonzalez properly for his full hours worked.

64. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

65. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiff Gonzalez and other similarly situated former workers.

66. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Gonzalez and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

67. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Gonzalez and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION CLAIMS

68. Plaintiff Gonzalez brings his FLSA minimum wage, overtime compensation, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons (the “FLSA Class members”), i.e., persons who are or were employed by Defendants or any of them, on or after the date that is three years before the filing of the complaint in this case (the “FLSA Class Period”).

69. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Gonzalez and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants’ common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage, overtime pay at a one and one-half their regular rates for work in excess of forty (40) hours per workweek under the FLSA, and willfully failing to keep records under the FLSA.
